*A supervisory committee consists of a chair (must be department tenure-track) and four other members. Qualified individuals outside the university, upon the recommendation of the head of the academic unit and approval of the Graduate College, may serve as members of thesis committees; however, such individuals may not serve as chairs or co-chairs (unless they have affiliated faculty status).

**Academic Professionals (e.g., research scientists, research engineering), nontenured-track faculty (e.g., adjunct professors, research professors), and individuals granted affiliated faculty status through established university procedures may serve as co-chairs, members, or extra members of thesis committees upon approval by the Graduate College.
